December 19 – Rudi Baumann, Travelogue from London to Rome

Our travels started at the Park Lane Hotel in London across the street from a park. On the other side of the park was Buckingham Palace. We took various tours seeing the highlights – Parliament, Big Ben, etc. From there we traveled by coach to South Hampton where we embarked upon the Crystal Serenity and met our cruise companions, Tom and Betty Coulon (who used to work at Ball). Our first port of call was Dublin with a visit to Guinness. This was followed by a stop in Cork where we saw a statue recognizing 2.5 million Irish immigrants to America. Next was Oporto where we sailed down the river to the Graham distillery, home of Graham Port. We rented a car in Lisbon with a driver, and had a tour of Lisbon ending up at the most western point of the European continent. Next was Gibraltar with the Barbary apes – actually they look like monkeys – who would steal anything that they could reach. Then on to Barcelona with the Ramblas and Gaudi. Next was Monte Carlo, where we rented a car and driver who drove us on the route of the Grand Prix race which was to occur the next week, and then on to Nice and Eze with the driver. Lastly was our destination – Rome. We disembarked to stay a few days at the Excelsior and tour the Colosseum, Trevi Fountain, the Vatican, etc. Remember – Don’t put off traveling to places you want to see. SOMEDAY IS NOW !!!

Final Totals for 2016 Foothills Kiwanis Bell-Ringing Campaign

-- Kerry Hassler, Foothills Kiwanis Bell-Ringing Coordinator

Thanks to all who volunteered to do bell-ringing for our club this past holiday season! From Friday, November 25 through Saturday, December 24, a total of 220.5 hours of bell-ringing was donated at the Sunrise King Soopers and Meadows Safeway in Boulder; and at the South Boulder Road King Soopers in Louisville. This resulted in a total of $13,971.61 in kettle donations being collected, all of which will be used by the Salvation Army this year to provide assistance to in-need families and individuals in Boulder County. Our club won the Boulder County Salvation Army’s Annual Bell-Ringing Award for most kettle donations for the 15th year in a row.

Leading Foothills Kiwanis bell-ringers this past season were Bob Mohling (29 hours), Kerry Hassler (28 hours), Mary Schweitzer (21 hours), and Dave Rogers (18 hours). Leading non-Foothills bell-ringers were Bert and Hope Nett (22 hours), Laurance Hubbard (20.5 hours), Arlene Devore (11 hours), and Cecilia Lutz (10 hours). We also appreciate our bell-ringing volunteers from the Monarch Key Club, Peak to Peak Key Club, and the University of Colorado Circle K Club. Thanks again to all for your bell-ringing that allowed us to help our community through the Salvation Army!

Thoughts and Prayers for Club Members

- To Pete Sprengle, as he continues to battle bone-marrow cancer at home.
- To Mary Schweitzer, who moved on January 8 from Boulder to the state of Washington to be close to her children.

Broomfield Salvation Army Christmas Gift Program

On Wednesday, December 21, the Broomfield Salvation Army held its annual Christmas Gift Program at their office facility to distribute toys, clothing, and coats to in-need local-area families. In all, over 100 in-need families participated with gifts, clothing, and coats selected for over 250 children. Foothills Kiwanians and family members who volunteered were:

- Pre-event day Toy and Joy Shop set-up - Dave and Jan Rogers, Bob and Marilyn Mohling, Zhanna Pauluhn
- Event day volunteers - Kerry Hassler, Bob and Marilyn Mohling.

Thanks to Bob Mohling for coordinating and to all volunteers!
