Snippets from Recent Club Programs

4/8/19 – Fred Forman, Smart Phone User Tips

Dr. Forman has undergraduate and two advanced degrees in Physics from Case Institute of Technology and University of Pennsylvania. He has over 35 years of experience in Information Technology, 30 years of which are as a senior executive in a large international consulting firm. He provided a brief overview of smartphone basics – apps, settings, security – and then briefly reviewed some of the most useful apps (health, email, maps, and social media). Some of the helpful tips that he provided included: photos and videos take a large amount of storage (be careful not to inadvertently use burst mode); make your passwords strong (suggested use of security manager such as Dash Lane); use automatic setting for phone upgrades; group apps into families of a similar nature; Google iPhone emergency contact info; and use wifi whenever possible to minimize data usage. Thanks, Fred, for an informative presentation on smartphone use!

4/15/19 – Kay Neckel, AARP Driver Safety

Kay is an instructor for the AARP Smart Drive Program. She has been a program instructor for eight years in Colorado area that includes everything north of Denver. Kay resides in Loveland, and is a native Coloradoan growing up in Denver and Lakewood. She is retired from the telephone company (now Century Link) as a supervisor of telephone operators. Besides safe driving tips, she talked about the time when folks can no longer safely drive and what other transportation alternatives are available. She informed us that there are 33,000 fatalities annually, and that most accidents happen by distracted drivers. People account for 90% of accidents. Distractions come from radios, passenger conversations, GPS use, and texting/making phone calls while driving. She encouraged us to take the driving program test ($15 cost); however, the law requires a discount in your car insurance premium. Kay took us through several examples of new state laws. More information is available at: www.aarp.org. Thanks to Kay for this driver information!

4/14/19 – Stars of Tomorrow Talent Show

-- Paul Bailey, Committee Chair

The 67th Stars of Tomorrow Show was held on Sunday afternoon April 14th. The best classical performance and best of show was by Grace Schwab, a junior at Boulder High School who performed excerpts from Rhapsody in Blue by George Gershwin. Grace will represent Boulder/Broomfield at the District Stars of Tomorrow Show in Wheatland, Wyoming on May 11th. The best contemporary performance was by Andrew Woen, a sophomore at Peak to Peak Charter School of Creep by Radiohead, with his own arrangement. The event was held at the Muse Performance Space in Lafayette with intent to have another show this fall for K-8 performers. Thanks to judges Laurie Dameron and Craig Schwartz who assisted from Timebank Boulder.

2019 Scholarship Applications

Paul Bailey, Grace Schwab, Andrew Woen, Capt. Mark

-- Paul Bailey, Committee Chair

We have 10 high school senior applicants for scholarships. I have provided both a spreadsheet with all the information from the applications, along with a pdf of the linear written-out applications. You can find the supporting documents of transcripts and letters of recommendation at the website provided to our members. Please let me know your #1, 2, and 3 picks by Monday April 29 so that I can compile by our next board meeting.

4/15/19 – Key Club End of Year Celebration

-- Bob Mohling, Kiwanis Sponsor

Bob, Dave, and Jan Rogers attended the Peak to Peak HS Key Club year-end celebration. The officers provided a PowerPoint presentation of the year's service projects at the school and in the community. Dave gave a brief summary of Kiwanis for the families. Bob and Dave presented a Kiwanis plaque to Ms. Medina for her many hours of support of the Key Club. Awards were presented to students with the most volunteer hours. Other agenda items were: Yuda bands, international trip announcement, and bracelet making. We are proud of the student's many accomplishments!

2018-19 Officers: Jessica, Michelle, Tiffany, Ryan, Taylor, and Ms. Medina (Faculty Advisor)
